SAUCER FAVORITES ON KRAMER'S TRAIL

Clarke and McFarland Leave to Force
Champion Into Matches for National Title.

Jackie Clarke and Floyd McFarland leave today for Newark, N. J., where they will attempt to force Frank Kramer to defend his national title. The popular saucer riders will take up their campaign with the officials of the N. C. A. A. to try to force the match. McFarland wired the Newark bike people last night that they were tired of the bickering in the eastern press, purporting to be the reflection of Kramer's state of mind, and that they were leaving to meet "the hero" on his own track. They were also told that Clarke, holder of the western title, had won his honors in a field altogether as classy as that against which Kramer had been competing, and that when the match time arrived Kramer would find the going good.

He says that he feels ready for another match within a week.

Two matches were played in the doubles yesterday, bringing the series down to the final, which will be played at 4 p. m. this afternoon. Among the old timers who will be out this season are Tiny Home, captain; Homer Grant, the clever quarterback of past seasons; Dave Oleason, who played two seasons ago, but who was kept off the team last year on account of typhoid fever; and Sam Oleason, who played last year and looks like a veteran and should be a fast field this winter.

JENNINGS WILL STICK IF SALARY SUITS HIM

Detroit, Sept. 6.—Reported rumors that Hugh Jennings would retire as manager of the Detroit baseball team at the close of the season were given a quietus today, when Jennings said he had not given the contract matter any serious consideration. If the Detroit baseball club wishes to retain me next season and the remuneration is such that it suits, I will be only too glad to direct the team," says Jennings.

Moissant, After Flight Across English Channel, Plans Aluminium Aeroplane.

John Moissant, the young American aviator who recently flew from Paris to within a few miles of London, England, alighting but once on French soil after he left the capital, now has a plan for the construction of an aluminium flying machine, which, he declares, will be superior to all others now in use. Moissant uses the monoplane instead of the biplane style of air craft, and his success in reaching England tends to prove that the less planes there are to manipulate the less trouble there is for the aviator.

PIRATES AFTER DOVES: BOTH AFTER MCTIGUE

Pittsburg, Sept. 6.—The Pittsburg and Boston clubs have locked horns over the services of Pitcher McTigue. It seems that early in the season the Pittsburg club heard of McTigue through Jack Miller's brother, who was playing with Kankakee, where McTigue was pitching at the time. President Dreyfus put the pitcher's name in his famous dope sheet and notified his scouts to keep tabs upon the young man. McTigue drifted east after Kankakee disbanded and landed at Haverhill, Mass. Fred Tenney, a stockholder in the Boston club, was playing in the New England league, and seeing McTigue perform, gave Manager Lake of the Doves a tip to land him. Lake arranged with Haverhill to land McTigue. Pittsburg had two drafts in for McTigue, one for Birmingham, Ala. the other for Fall River, Mass. Pittsburg claims McTigue never played officially with Haverhill.

ALL-STARS VERSUS OGDEN.

An all-star baseball team, picked from the several teams composing the Weber County league, has arranged a series of post season games, with "Dad" Gilpin's State league team. The team is composed of the best hitters and batters of the teams in the county league and the line-up will probably be as follows: Paulson, catcher; Richardson, senior field; Deemer, third baseman; Anderson, shortstop; Moore, left field; Stahler, first base; Fisher, shortstop; Allen, pitcher; Shaw, pitcher; Randall, second base, and Ferrin, right field.
